

A pair of North Italian carved giltwood mirrors, each with an arched divided plate with a pierced cresting, sides and apron, the whole carved with rocaille, acanthus, flowers, leaves and scrolls, with original mirror plates.

Venice, Third quarter of the 18th Century.

Each: Hight: 54,72 in. (139cm)
Width: 31,10 in. (79 cm)

Comparative example:

Christie's, Works of Art from The Giuseppe Rossi Collection Sold to Benefit a Charity, Lot137; 24 Sep-15 Oct 2020 | online 18376.

Condition:

Before restoration the frames presented marks and discolorations commensurate with age and use, some very minor chips and losses. Some cracks and opening along the lines of the underlying construction. In overall good condition, just cleaned and with some little retouching to the gilding.