

BURZIO.

A pair of Italian Neoclassical Giltwood and Painted Console Tables, Tuscany Late 18th Century, with a rectangular Rosso Levanto and Verde Alpi marble top above a bead-and-reel framed frieze inset with painted panels imitating Verde Alpi marble and Lumachella marble in the central panel, the corners with giltwood centred rosettes, on fluted turned tapering legs surmounted with acanthus carved capitals on round carved base, on acanthus carved toupie feet.

Height: 35,2 inc. (89,5 cm)

Width: 60,6 inc. (154 cm)

Depth: 29,9 inc. (76 cm)

Provenance: Northern Italian Private Collection

